

Shore Rhodes Scholars

1941

Eric Brian Jeffcoat SMITH

BSc DPhil

Shore 1929-36

Senior Prefect, Chemistry Prize, Chemistry H2, BC 1935-36, FC 1936, Cadet Lieut, Exhibition in Science.

1937-40 Uni of Sydney BSc ; Rowing Blue.

1942 Volunteer Defence Corps - part-time duty

1942 Elected Fellow of the Chemical Society at New College, Oxford University awarded Doctor of Philosophy for research on 'the synthesis of a medically important compound'. Rowed in the Trial Eight, member Isis crew

1948 Joined ICI Chemicals in Liverpool (UK), returned to Sydney in 1949 and later moved to Perth. On his resignation from ICI, he was appointed head of the industrial chemistry group of the W.A. Government. Throughout his working years, he maintained active participation in every organization and association related to chemistry, plastics and paint, was chairman of most and president of some. He was instrumental in the establishment of the Plastics Institute. Member of Royal Society of Western Australia, premier society of scientists in that State.

Died December 2009

