

Al Baxter
Shore 1987 – 1994

Profile

Height:	190cm
Weight:	116kg
Date Of Birth:	21/01/1977
Place of Birth:	Canberra ACT

Rugby Career

Senior Club:	Northern Suburbs
Schoolboy:	Shore 1st XV &amp; FC 1994

Stats

Provincial Rugby Caps:	115
Provincial Rugby Points:	5 (1t)
Provincial Rugby Debut:	1999 v ACT Brumbies
Super Rugby Caps:	106
Super Rugby Points:	5 (1t)
Super Rugby Debut:	2000 v Bulls
Test Rugby Caps:	69
Test Rugby Points:	5 (1t)
Test Rugby Debut:	2003 v New Zealand

In 2008 Al Baxter became Australia's most capped prop, surpassing Ewen McKenzie's mark of 51 Test matches and in 2009 he surpassed Matt Dunning to become the first NSW prop to achieve 100 state caps. Remarkably, Baxter is still awaiting his first try for his home state. A cornerstone of the Waratahs pack since coming to prominence during 2002, Baxter has played in two World Cups after debuting in the lead up to the 2003 tournament